PREAMBLE

In choosing to live within Summerwood at Pinehurst, a resident will enjoy the benefits of communal living, viz. an attractive environment, cost-effective security and access to shared recreational facilities which are well manicured.

Communal living, however, inevitably brings responsibilities along with its benefits. Levies are raised and need to be paid in order for the Association to meet its obligations and to pay its accounts, Conduct Rules must be put in place and obeyed in order to ensure the smooth running of the community so that, firstly, residents may derive the maximum collective benefit and, secondly, basic aesthetic standards are maintained in order to enhance the property values in the village.

In particular, the integrity of the security in the village is considered to be of paramount importance. For access control to be effective there will be a small degree of inconvenience to residents' visitors.

It should be borne in mind that the Conduct Rules to which all Members agreed to submit themselves when acquiring property in Summerwood at Pinehurst, contribute toward the exceptional lifestyle we enjoy.

3,1 When any number of days is prescribed in these Rules, the same shall be reckoned exclusively of the first and inclusively of the last day unless the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or proclaimed public holiday, in which event the last day shall be the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or proclaimed public holiday.

4 Legal status of Conduct Rules

4,1 The means of protecting and preserving the quality lifestyle enjoyed by residents is enshrined in the Constitution and Conduct Rules. The Rules which may be amended by the Management Committee from time to time, have been made in terms of the Articles of the Association of the Summerwood at Pinehurst Home Owners' Association.

4,2 In the process of purchase and transfer to Members of their property, all have submitted to the provision of these Rules. As a result they are binding upon all Members, as is any decision taken, condition determined or instruction given by the Management Committee. It is the duty of a Member to ensure that the existence of the Conduct Rules is made known and the compliance with same by -

4.2.1 any member of his family, his visitor, estate agent, service provider, employee and other worker; and

- 4.2.2 any occupant of his property, and any member of the occupant's family, his visitor, service provider, employee and worker.

- 4,5 In the process of applying the Conduct Rules and their accompanying fine structures for breaches of a Rule, the Management Committee will comply with the Rule of Natural Justice and shall ensure that a resident is given notice of the pending imposition of such fine and an opportunity to dispute the application thereof. The Committee shall be entitled to determine the process to be followed in such circumstances. It is important to note, however, that the Village Manager may issue an on-the-spot fine for the contravention of a series of offences, e.g. dogs found roaming freely in the street without the owner being in attendance, or, an owner who does not immediately remove the faeces of his dog when walking the animal in the village. In the case of the last-mentioned offences the Rule of Natural Justice will not be followed.
- 4,6 Further to the explanation given in paragraph 2.2 above, should any conflict arise between the specific content of any of these Conduct Rules and that of a resolution of the Management Committee, taken within their mandated responsibility, or a resolution of the Members of the Association taken at an Annual General or Special Meeting, the resolution of any one of the two afore-mentioned bodies will take prevalence over the Conduct Rule.
